MANSFIELD FOUNDATION NAMES NEW COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR
Margo Grimm Eule to focus on Foundation's public relations and communications

WASHINGTON, D.C. The Maureen and Mike Mansfield Foundation, a non-profit organization that promotes understanding and cooperation in U.S.-Asia relations, today announced that Margo Grimm Eule has joined the Foundation's Washington, D.C. office as Director of Communications.

Ms. Eule's primary responsibility is to oversee public relations and external communications. She also supports the Foundation's programming, reporting, planning and development activities. Ms. Eule has extensive international and government affairs experience in both the private and public sectors. Immediately prior to joining the Mansfield Foundation, Ms. Eule was Government Affairs Manager for Hyundai Motor Company's Washington office. Previously, Ms. Eule was a trade policy analyst at Powell, Goldstein, Frazer & Murphy in Washington. She also was a Foreign Service Officer for the U.S. Department of State, serving at the American Embassy in London. Ms. Eule's previous experience includes positions at the Japan Economic Institute and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Ms. Eule has a Bachelors degree in International Relations from Pomona College. She also has a Masters degree in Political Science from the University of Canterbury in Christchurch, New Zealand, where she was a Rotary Foundation Graduate Scholar.

The Maureen and Mike Mansfield Foundation is a 501(c)3 organization that promotes understanding and cooperation in U.S.-Asia relations. Maureen and Mike Mansfield's values, ideals and vision for U.S.-Asia relations continue through the Foundation's exchanges, dialogues, research and educational programs, which create networks among U.S. and Asian leaders, explore the underlying issues influencing public policies, and increase awareness about the nations and peoples of Asia. The Foundation also supports the Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center at the University of Montana.
